or warnings, being placed on probationary status, suspension of training, or expulsion from training.

1. Class Participation: Attendance and participation in class is required. Graduate seminars require a high level of personal involvement, accountability, and integrity. It is expected that students will come to class prepared – having completed readings, completed performance as well as their professional characteristics. Although a student may be in good academic standing, they must receive satisfactory evaluations from faculty members regarding their professional characteristics in order to continue on in the program. The faculty will evaluate the student's professional characteristics in relation to their ability to become a viable member of

Students must abide by academic integrity standards as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct found in the UAF Catalog: Academic and Regulations Chapter. The UAF Code of Conduct can be found online at http://www.uaf.edu/catalog/current/academics/regs3.html#Student_Conduct In this course if it is found that a student has knowingly plagiarized they will receive a failing grade for the course.

Plagiarism is representing someone else's ideas and work as your own. Plagiarism includes not only copying verbatim, but also rephrasing the ideas of another without properly acknowledging the source. As they prepare and submit work to meet course requirements, whether a draft or a final version of a paper or project, students must take great care to distinguish their own ideas and language from information derived from sources. Sources include published primary and secondary materials, electronic media, and information and opinions gained directly from other people. (Capella University Learner Handbook, 2006, p. 14)
