Miho Akoi passed on comments regarding proposed syllabi accompanying my proposal for sequence. I have tried to address these concerns.

1. Attendance policy—these have been updated
~~2. Difference in descriptions and outcomes between~~ made adjustments in the 600 level syllabi, particularly along the lines suggested. I also made adjustments to graduate research papers.

3. Typo in stacking. Fixed.
4. Differences in courses—

There are already several other differences in expected length and depth of the research paper to write a 4 page review of a single article, while a page paper that reviews several related articles for 464/664. There are also additional readings for I have added an on line discussion element for the forum to discuss these readings and place them in context.

I hope the revised syllabi are more in line with your expectations.

Respectfully,
