

Alaska Fairbanks

DEPARTMENT EMERGENCY ACTION PLAN

For

IRVING I

DepartmentName:Department of Veterinary Medicine

DateDEAP Adopted:7/1/15

Date DEAPRevised: 2/

DEAP Preparedby: M. Hoffman (modified from IAB DEAP by J

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. DEPARTMENT AND BUILDING INFORMATION

- Building name/building coordinator
- Department coordinator and alternate
- Room numbers occupied by the department
- Emergency assembly area (EAA)
- Employee accountability procedures after evacuation
- Critical operations found in the department
- Medical and rescue duties

II. EME

I. DEPARTMENT AND BUILDING INFORMATION

BUILDING

Building Name: Irving I (IRV I)

Building Address: 214 Koyukuk Dr.

Building Coordinator: Dan Uliassi 907474-5455

Description of

Department Emergency Staff:

Roll taker(s)(required)andfloor monitors(optional) Dependingonthe size of the departmen, there may be more than one roll taker and floor monitor .

Employee Accountability Procedures After Evacuation:

In theevent of a fire emergency signed by the building alarm system, all occupants will promptly exit the building by the nearest exit. Once clear of the building, go to the designated point and immediately

Veterinary Medicine±DEAP

When you call 911 from a campus location to request emergency assistance, you will be connected to the University Emergency Dispatch. Call from a safe location and remember to:

- ± Stay calm.
- ± Be prepared to answer the

Evacuation Procedures:

A building occupant is required to evacuate the building by the nearest exit when the fire alarm sounds. Move quickly to your department's designated Emergency Assembly Area

Fire Procedures- UAF fire safety policy 12.03.02 states:
It is the University of Alaska Fairbanks policy to have all building occupants evacuate any campus building upon activation of the building fire alarm system. In the case of individuals who ha

IV Responsibilities

To insure emergency evacuation procedure works when needed the following responsibilities to this plan are identified

University of Alaska- Fairbanks

- A. Provide adequate signaling devices (fire alarm and strobe lights to code)
- B. Provide adequate exit signage and lighting

Veterinary Medicine±DEAP

±Injuries -number injured and type of injuries.

±Information on assailant(s) location, number of suspects, race/gender/clothing, description, physical features, type of weapons (rifle, shotgun or handgun), backpack, shooters

e

e

III. EMERGE

Student Services

Academic Advising (Cuning Bldg).....e-10
Admission Services (H).....e-10
Bookstore (Constitution).....d-0

